

The FCC's Proposed Record Retention Rule would place a heavy burden on small stations such as ours. One Master Control operator captures incoming feeds, enters and plays on air commercials, on air programming, records satellite-fed programs, documents every second of programming logs, and many other tasks. Recording programming from 6a to 10p (and changing tapes in and out during this period) would overwhelm any one operator that handles all the above.